Willy Bessems

During his horn studies with Mr. Crüts and Prof. E. Penzel, which he finished with honors, Willy Bessems was personally chosen by maestro Sergiu Celibidache to be his principal horn player in the 4th Symphony of A. Bruckner at the Schleswig Holstein Musik Festival. This performance led to engagements at the Gustav Mahler Jugend Orchester with maestro Franz Welser-Möst, substitute principal horn player with the Essener Philharmoniker from 1989 until 1991 and the same position from 1991 with the Gürzenich Orchester Köln. Mr. Bessems has worked with conductors such as Leonard Bernstein, Paavo Berglund, Dimitry

Kitaenko, Markus Stenz en Gustavo Dudamel and François Xavier Roth.

With the Gürzenich Orchestra Köln he has played many symphony concerts and opera productions. With the orchestra he has traveled to Spain, Switzerland, Russia, Argentina, Korea, Japan and China. Mr. Bessems can be heard on many cd recordings like all of the symphonies of Mahler, Shostakovich and Prokofiev. Since 1993 he has been teaching horn at the Conservatory of Maastricht, The Netherlands.
